That would cause an insane epidemic. Right now they're spread out enough for herd immunity to mostly work. Once they're concentrated (basically like they were in all of the areas with outbreaks), measles will not only infect tons of them, but by being so widespread, have significantly more chances to evolve into forms that the vaccine does not prevent, thus causing a global out break on a ...

Chipped beef is a form of pressed, salted and dried beef that has been sliced into thin pieces. Some makers smoke the dried beef for more flavor. The modern product consists of small, thin, flexible leaves of partially dried beef, generally sold compressed together in jars or flat in plastic packets. The processed meat producer Hormel once described it as "an air-dried product that is similar ...
