I had a few best sellers in the 1990s including Father Does Know Best, written with Lauren Chapin, Lassie A Dog's Life, penned with the famous canine and The Cathedrals, done with gospel music legends George Younce and Glen Paine. Yet the book that gave me the title "Best Selling Author" is this one. I have lost count as to how many times it has gone into reprints and I have literally done ...

William Cowper was keenly aware of the truth that God moves in mysterious ways. His life, as John Piper describes it in his biography of Cowper, seems to have been "one long accumulation of pain," especially mental pain. But this hymn writer trusted by faith—not perfectly, but perseveringly—that in this mysterious and maddening providence, God was working wonders.
