Pre Seed Success

Pre-Seed, the sperm-friendly lubricant (and only lube that should be used while trying-to-conceive) is a staple of the TTC community. We love it, and we'd hazard a guess that all these ladies on this page with BFPs speak highly of it as well! If you don't have Pre-Seed yet, we recommend you pick some up at Early-Pregnancy-Tests.com. It ships for free anywhere in the U.S. or

BFP with Preseed - TwoWeekWait

Full disclosure: I was on my second round of Clomid at 100mg, but I had ovulated on the first round at 50mg. I ovulated about 2 days sooner and may have had a very slightly larger follicle on the 100mg compared to 50mg. So, I really think that Pre-Seed was a contributing factor in our success :) Good luck to you!

Pre-Seed success stories? : TryingForABaby - reddit

Was wondering if any of you used Pre-Seed while successfully getting pregnant? While I would rather not have to use any type of lube as I feel it could be a barrier so to speak, I've done some research and it seems as though Pre-Seed does not prevent pregnancy.

Success using Pre-Seed? — The Bump

Pre-seed is good and I used too and got my BFP the second time using it, but I want to be realistic with you. It will only work if you ovulate normally and have don't have any hormonal issues which may cause infertility. Preseed will assist with getting the sperm to the cervix but that is it.

Best Answer: Pre-seed is a sperm friendly lubricant and nothing more. It does not increase your chances of conception. Its purpose is to lubricate without killing off sperm. Other lubricants, like K-Y jelly, saliva, etc. can kill sperm. Bear in mind that Mother Nature knows her business better than we do ...
