Quintus Advenit Translation

The ship finally moored at a pier; Quintus got out onto land and hurried to the city, he wants to arrive before night. Evening had now been present while he arrived to the agora, but the moon was shining, which was lighting up the Acropolis, for a long time, he was watching everything; he was able to see the Parthenon, the goddess of Athen's most noble temple, and many other monuments in ...

As Mommsen points out, Jordanes used (and largely plagiarized from) a number of sources, among which are the following: The Chronological Tables for Olympiads 111 to 169 (= 336-101 B.C.) of Eusebius, as translated into Latin by St. Jerome. A full version of these may be found online, in Latin, complete with an English translation. Another English translation of part of Jerome's version of ...
